

WHERE IS CAPTAIN HOOK'S TREASURE CHEST?
 UNDER HIS TREASURE SHIRT!

Seuffert Box
 This box is beautifully made from a variety of New Zealand woods. It opens out to display one large base drawer and four smaller hinged ones. The maker, Anton Seuffert, was a renown New Zealand furniture maker who also made furniture for Queen Victoria.

Explorer Treasure Boxes

At the South Canterbury Museum
 On TUESDAY 29 June
 at 3.30pm

Make your own treasure box or go on a treasure hunt

Find out what a wakahuia is?

Inscribed on the lid of this oval copper box with hinged lid is "this box was left by Bryon Benson to Fran Greenup Nber 5th 1736". It also has engraved heads of a male and a female on the bottom and various shields on top.

Perth St
 PO Box 522
 Timaru 7940
 New Zealand

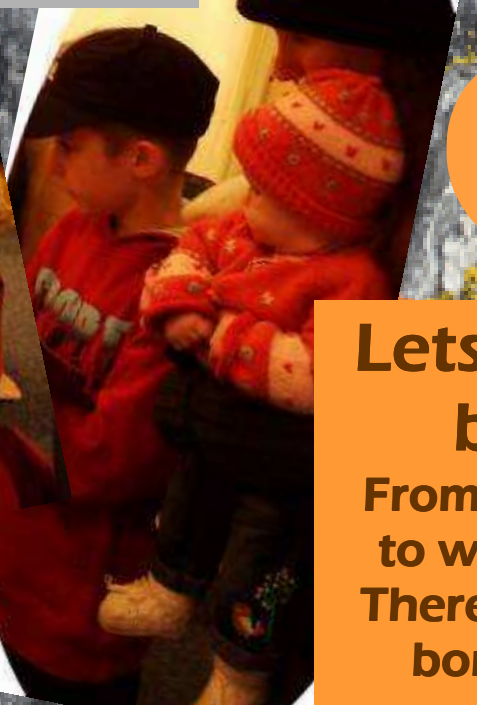

Telephone (03) 687 7212
 Facsimile (03) 687 7215
 museum@timde.govt.nz
 www.timaru.govt.nz/museum

What do you call an exploding monkey?

A ba BOOM!

MAY 2010 EXPLORING COATS OF ARMS

Lets explore bones

From Moa bones
to whale bones
There are a lot of bones at the

South Canterbury Museum
Find out more on Thursday 29th
July at 3.30pm

School

Holidays

are coming again!!

Come on in for

Dress ups

Quizzes

Movies and Games

Explore our new exhibition

Feeling for daylight

The photographs of Jack Adamson

Feeling for daylight

The photographs of Jack Adamson

