

Albert D Hally Trust Fund

Biography

Albert Daniel Hally was born in Epworth, Temuka in 1902. He worked for his father at Hally Motors, the first Ford Agency in South Canterbury, taking over and running the business from 1930 to 1963.

Albert was a keen sportsman taking part in most outdoors sports, including shooting and fishing, and played senior rugby for Temuka - supporting the club in later years. He was also a loyal supporter of Temuka Plunket Society and the Sisters of St Josephs.

Albert passed in 1966 establishing the A D Hally Charitable Trust asking that preference be granted to charitable purposes in South Canterbury.

Funding Application Guidelines
