Kia ora Patrick,

Thank you for your call earlier.

Just confirming that Fire and Emergency will not be attending the hearing set for 22nd April 2026. Instead, we intend to table a letter to set out Fire and Emergency's position based on relief sought in its submission and recommendations made by the reporting officer and responses set out in the applicants' briefs of evidence.

Given this is not expert evidence, we intend to provide this letter by COB Monday 20th of April to be tabled at the hearing on 22nd April 2026.

If you have any concerns, please let me know and we can discuss this.

Thanks,

Arlia O'Sullivan

You don't often get email from patrick.otoole@timdc.govt.nz. Learn why this is important

Hi Arlia, I tried calling before but couldn't get through.

I am emailing because I note I haven't yet received a copy of the Hearing Attendance Form from you. I am happy to accept an email response if you are having trouble with the document.

Please be mindful the deadline for any evidence you wish to present at the hearing is due today at 5pm.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Kind regards, Patrick
