Notes:

- The District Licensing Committee may require notice of this application to be given to any person or persons it may specify.
- A Temporary Authority can only be issued for up to three months and during this time you need to obtain your own licence.
- As soon as you receive your Temporary Authority you should start gathering the supporting information you will need for your new licence application.
- Have your new licence application lodged within six weeks of the granting of your Temporary Authority. This means the licence(s) can be processed and granted before your Temporary Authority expires.
- If there is a good reason you are unable to lodge a new licence application before your Temporary Authority expires you need to let us know as soon as possible so we can work with you.
